An Asan and GMF survey

TOPLINE DATA 2012

International Trends: Korea 2012 Partners

International Trends: Korea

Survey Method	Computer Assisted Telephone Survey
Target Population	aged 18 and older in South Korea
Sample Size	1,000 - 500 from landline numbers - 500 from mobile numbers
Sampling Method	Random Sampling from both landline and mobile RDD samples
Margin of Error	95% confidence $\pm 3.1\%$
Date	June 15~21, 2012
Research Company	TNS

TNS Korea was commissioned to conduct the survey using Computer Assisted Telephone Interviews in Korea. A random sample of approximately 1,000 men and women, 18 years of age and older, was interviewed. Interviews were conducted between June 15 and June 21, 2012.

For the results of the national sample in Korea, one can say with 95% confidence that the maximum margin of error attributable to sampling and other random effects is plus or minus 3.1 percentage points. In addition to sampling error, question wording and practical difficulties in conducting surveys can also introduce error or bias into the findings of public opinion polls.

In Korea, the data was weighted using age, gender, and regional demographics. This is the most accepted method of creating a nationally representative sample in Korea.
